

Celebrating Young Children Conference

Redcliffe Children's Centre invites you to:

Making Meaning through Talk and Mark-making Young Children, birth – 8 years

Tuesday, 3rd July 2007: 9.00 – 3. p.m.
Ramada Inn, Redcliffe, BRISTOL

Key Speakers:

- Nigel Hall, Professor of Education at Manchester Metropolitan University. Nigel is a celebrated author and lead project director of the 'Communication Matters' materials. Nigel will explain the latest research on supporting young children's talk and early literacy / mark-making from 2 – 8 years
- Maulfry Worthington, Doctoral researcher, Free University, Amsterdam. Former lecturer in EY pedagogy and EY mathematics and Numeracy Consultant. Maulfry will present findings of research into young children's mathematical graphics
- Elizabeth Carruthers, Headteacher, Redcliffe Children's Centre: former Lecturer in Early Childhood and Numeracy Consultant. Elizabeth will explore the pedagogy of children's marks.

Elizabeth and Maulfry have both taught in the 3 – 8 year age range for many years. They have written many publications and are co-authors of the acclaimed book Children's Mathematics: Making Marks, Making Meaning.

Cost: £100.00; discounts for group booking (please enquire).

* Discounted price of £80.00 for Children's Mathematics Network members.

To book please phone: 011790 30334 or send a cheque to the Conference Organiser, Redcliffe Children's Centre, Spencer House, Ship Lane, Redcliffe, BRISTOL BS1 6RR and you will be sent confirmation. Thank you.